

IT'S NOT IN THE WAY, IT IS THE WAY

'It' is the big Q—healthcare Quality. Embracing it is the key to healthcare excellence. More than just compliance, more than a role or department, Quality is a shared responsibility that has the power to transform the very system we're all working so hard to make better. So, let's make it a big priority—at the bedside, in the boardroom, on a balance sheet, and everywhere in between. Find out how to tap into the full power of Quality at NAHQ.org
